

Individual Counseling:

Any student may request to see a counselor to address any issues or concerns. They can send a note, email, or ask a counselor for a meeting. These sessions are confidential and short-term in nature. Counselors may also receive student referrals from teachers, administrators, and/or parents. School counselors do not provide therapy and referrals are made to outside agencies when necessary.