

Developmental Classroom Guidance Instruction

The school counselors design and implement classroom guidance lessons in grades K-8. These lessons help the counselors to get acquainted with the students as well as educate them on specific topics. Topics may include: friends, understanding of self and others, coping strategies, social skills, communication, problem-solving, decision-making, conflict resolution, study skills, drug resistance education, tolerance, and stress management.