

Information Gathering/Referrals

Counselors may observe and assess students in order to gather information that would be beneficial to a teacher or parent. We are advocates for children by assisting teachers in planning developmentally appropriate interventions and by making referrals for special services within the school and community.

Parents can request a counseling list by contacting the school counselors or administration.